So she goes to Owl who helps her find another family for her baby. He adapts well to the new environment, but he also deals with questions and issues related to his adoption.
- Material Title: Multiple Transitions (VHS)
Author: Michael Trout Videotapes 1997 16 min
- Young children who have experienced an important loss often express that loss through their behavior, rather than with words. This tape is an attempt to translate the behavior of foster children into words an adult might understand. Visually, it is simply a series of words on the screen. There is music in the background and occasionally a child will voice the words that are displayed. That's it, but the words are powerful and the picture they paint is both sad and enlightening. Anyone who works with such children might benefit from this
- Material Title: New Legs: Seven Core Adoption Poems
Author: Penny Callan Partridge Books 1999 14 pages
- This booklet contains seven poems, each related to one of the "Seven Core Issues of Adoption" described by Sharon Kalplan Roszia and Deborah Silverstein – loss, rejection, guilt and shame, grief, identity, intimacy, and control. Partridge, herself an adoptee and an adoptive parent, is a frequent speaker at adoption conferences and has published other books of adoption poetry.

 Author: Sharon Kaplan & Deborah N. Roszia & DVDs 1989 2 hours
 Adoption is a life long, inter-generational process, which unites birth parents, adoptees and adoptive parents forever. It triggers seven lifelong issues for all triad members -- grief, rejection, guilt, loss, identity, control, and intimacy. Recognizing these similarities, triad members and professionals can reduce the adversarial
- Material Title: Tear Soup: A Recipe for Healing after Loss
 Author: Pat and DeKlyen, Chuck Schwiebert Children's Books 1999 51 pages
 This book, illustrated by Taylor Bills, is written in the style of a children's book, and indeed it could be shared with young children, but it appears to be directed at adults as well. Using the extended metaphor of making soup for processing grief, the authors and illustrator offer a wide ranging approach to the process from many possible perspectives. It is followed by two pages of on-line support sites.
- Material Title: Toddler Adoption: The Weaver's Craft
 Author: Mary Hopkins-Best Books 1997 247 pp
 Most often, children are joining their permanent, adoptive families past the age of infancy but not yet as "older children." This book covers many aspects of adopting and parenting these young children: the decision whether or not to adopt; preparation and education; forming attachments; behavior management; and more. Until now, few written resources have been available to discuss this special age -- the toddler.
