

There are abbreviated materials - "Information Packets" - that are included in this list. This list represents only materials primarily on this topic. However, there are other materials that speak to this topic available in the library (i.e., brief "Articles," etc.). Contact ORPARC for additional materials.

Support Groups

Material Title: Adopted Youth Support Group -- Manual
 Author: ORPARC Staff Loveland, Aura Lee Information Packets 2001

This manual contains eleven pages of step-by-step directions based on activities that were carried out in a support group that met in 2001. In addition, it contains selected activity sheets from a NACAC manual entitled "Family Preservation: The Second Time Around," which were used by the adopted children and the facilitators

Material Title: Adoptive Parent Support Group
 Author: Information Packet Information Packets

Information packet developed by Claudia Hutchison combining the non-return packets of:

- Starting and Nurturing Adoptive Parent Groups
- Tips and Techniques for Adoptive Parent Support Groups

This combined packet also includes several articles from NAIC and NACAC on how to create and support adoptive parent support groups.

Material Title: Empowering Grandparents Raising Grandchildren: A Training Manual for Group Leaders
 Author: Carole Cox Books 2000 120 pages

A 14-session workshop designed to help grandparents who are raising their grandchildren alone. Professionals who use the manual can revise and expand upon the themes presented here to fit the needs of their particular work groups. Includes useful tips on communicating effectively with kids on drugs, sex, and sexually transmitted diseases, dealing with loss and abandonment, developing and maintaining self-esteem, dealing with their special behavior problems, as well as appropriate ways of instilling and maintaining rules in the home.

Material Title: Innovative Adoptive and Foster Parent Groups across the Country (2 CD's)
 Author: NACAC Conference 2006 CD CD 2006 3 hours

This institute provides information on innovative ways to identify the needs of and deliver support to parents in support groups. The speakers discuss how to conduct a needs assessment, develop a plan, and have a clear vision. You will hear from other creative support group leaders about what they are doing to stay energized

Material Title: Starting and Nurturing Adoptive Parent Groups: A Guide for Leaders
 Author: Janet Jerve Non-Return Items 2002 67 pages

Produced by NACAC, this guide has chapters on types of groups, getting started, developing group identity, managing meetings, becoming nonprofit, financial planning and fund raising, and rejuvenating your group.

Material Title: Tips and Techniques for Adoptive Parent Support Groups
 Author: DHS Non-Return Items 14 pages

This pamphlet, produced by the state of Oregon, discusses the objectives and functions of various types of support group; organizational considerations such as time, place, size, who would facilitate, etc; considerations around group process; and more.

Material Title: Transracial Support Groups: Gaining Cultural Confidence through Community Connections (CD)
 Author: NACAC Conference 2006 CD CD 2006 90 minutes

This presentation focuses on how transracial adoptive family support groups and parents can create positive ties to a child's birth heritage and facilitate racial, ethnic, and cultural connections through community outreach

Material Title: Wasn't love supposed to be enough? Biographies of a Long-Term Adoptive Parent Support Group and Services for Adoptive Families
 Author: VanSlyck, Wristen, Dupre-Clarke, Mague, Books 1998 342 pages

This book chronicles the life experiences of several families who have participated in a support group for adoptive families. It contains a compilation of information and advice for families and professionals who are touched by adoption. There is also general information on support groups including a chapter on adopted