ORPARC's Role in Assisting Adoptive Parent Groups

The Oregon Post Adoption Resource Center (ORPARC) is interested and available to assist in the development of new adoptive parent support groups. We are available to collaborate with you to provide services to existing groups, such as:

- a presentation about ORPARC services
- an overview of an ORPARC topical information packet
- training on a topic of interest to the group (previous page shows a sample list of available trainings); we would also work with you to locate a suitable presenter for other topics which a group may request

Development of adoptive parent support groups

ORPARC is prepared to undertake any of the following steps:

- Attend local meetings to assess interest and offer points for group start up. Help identify DHS staff and potential community partners interested in helping to form and lead groups.
- Assist group in developing plans for an initial parent group meeting.
- Develop announcements and flyers of meeting dates for the year and potential agendas for first few meetings.
- Mail out yearly schedule, and announcements/reminders prior to subsequent meetings (for the first year).
- Provide materials (manuals, articles, web sites) and consultation about forming and leading adoptive parent support groups.
- Assist local group leaders in obtaining meeting site, child care providers, food.
- Attend group once or twice in the first year (to assist at initial meeting; to offer a training or to lead a discussion).
- Provide library materials and pointers to group leaders who will provide a training (example: a video and discussion guide).

ORPARC Contact Information

We look forward to talking with you about these ideas, and to working with you to start and/or strengthen parent groups.
