A NEW ADOPTION GROUP:

LGBTQ ADOPTIVE PARENT SUPPORT GROUP

LGBTQ adoptive parents and families face unique challenges and concerns. Homophobia and hetero-sexism restrict access to support, services, and the social legitimacy necessary to create and sustain healthy families.

The group is open to prospective and current LGBTQ adoptive parents. The support groups are peer-facilitated by LGBTQ parent leaders and an Adoption Mosaic staff member. With a dynamic curriculum, groups are responsive to participant needs and experiences. LGBTQ Adoptive Parent Support Group will offer the support, information, and tools necessary to nurture healthy LGBTQ families.

When: 3rd Thursday of the Month

Time: 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM

Where: Q Center
