

CHILDREN NEEDED

In Utero Methamphetamine Study

Dr. Jacob Raber's Lab at OHSU is seeking participants for a study investigating the effects of methamphetamine exposure during pregnancy on learning and memory later in life.

Children that qualify:

- Boys and Girls, 7-9 years old
- With and without history of methamphetamine exposure

Locations:

- Study will be conducted at selected locations in Eugene, Albany, Salem and Portland

Participation involves:

- One interview with parent/legal guardian about child
- One visit where child will play pencil and video games

Compensation:

- $50 gift card to Toyr-R-Us
- Tram Pass and Bus Fare (or Parking)

Contact Brian Piper at 503-418-0182 or e-mail piperb@ohsu.edu.