

FASD AND OTHER NEUROBEHAVIORAL CONDITIONS

Understanding a brain-based approach

You are invited to a presentation by Eileen Devine, LCSW, therapist, consultant, and parent who will explore:

Se dispone de servicios de inscripción e interpretación en español llamando a 503-574-6595 antes del 5 de abril.

- How the brain is impacted by pre-natal exposure to alcohol, other substances or trauma.
- Discovering the source of behaviors: the brain.
- Creating meaningful accommodations for those experiencing neurobehavioral conditions.
- Parenting these children differently so there is greater hope and resiliency for the parenting journey.

Event Details:*

**Supervised child activities available. See below for details.*

WEDNESDAY
17th April 2019

6:00 - 8:00 pm

Center for Health Education
740 SW 9th Street
Newport, OR 97365

Free for Parents and Caregivers

TO REGISTER:

www.providenceoregon.org/swindellsevents

503-215-2429 or
800-833-8899 ext. 52429

*Supervised activities for children are available with trained Youth Activity Leaders. Please contact Jodie Pereira at 541-901-1175 or jodiep@ofsn.net for child supervision.

This workshop is free thanks to the generous support of our donors. A certificate of attendance and 2.0 hours of PDU's are available for this event thanks to the support of the Oregon Department of Education.

FASD AND OTHER NEUROBEHAVIORAL CONDITIONS

Understanding a brain-based approach

You are invited to a presentation by Eileen Devine, LCSW, therapist, consultant, and parent who will explore:

- How the brain is impacted by pre-natal exposure to alcohol, other substances or trauma.
- Discovering the source of behaviors: the brain.
- Creating meaningful accommodations for those experiencing neurobehavioral conditions.
- Parenting these children differently so there is greater hope and resiliency for the parenting journey.

Se dispone de servicios de inscripción e interpretación en español llamando a 503-574-6595 antes del 5 de abril.

Event Details:

 THURSDAY
18th April 2019

 6:00 - 8:00 pm

 Tillamook County Library- Main
1716 Third Street
Tillamook, OR 97141

 Free for Parents and Caregivers

TO REGISTER:

 www.providenceoregon.org/swindellsevents

 503-215-2429 or
800-833-8899 ext. 52429

This workshop is free thanks to the generous support of our donors.
A certificate of attendance and 2.0 hours of PDU's are available for this event thanks to the support of the Oregon Department of Education.

Se dispone de servicios de inscripción e interpretación en español llamando a 503-574-6595 antes del 5 de abril.

FASD AND OTHER NEUROBEHAVIORAL CONDITIONS

Understanding a brain-based approach

You are invited to a presentation by Eileen Devine, LCSW, therapist, consultant, and parent who will explore:

- How the brain is impacted by pre-natal exposure to alcohol, other substances or trauma.
- Discovering the source of behaviors: the brain.
- Creating meaningful accommodations for those experiencing neurobehavioral conditions.
- Parenting these children differently so there is greater hope and resiliency for the parenting journey.

Event Details:

FRIDAY
19th April 2019

6:00 - 8:00 pm

Providence Seaside Hospital
725 S Wahanna Road
Seaside, OR 97138

Free for Parents and Caregivers

TO REGISTER:

www.providenceoregon.org/swindellsevents

503-215-2429 or
800-833-8899 ext. 52429

This workshop is free thanks to the generous support of our donors.

A certificate of attendance and 2.0 hours of PDU's are available for this event thanks to the support of the Oregon Department of Education.