Material Title: Adopted (DVD)

Author: Barb Lee DVDs 2008 80 minutes

This DVD, by first-time director Barb Lee, reveals the grit rather than the glamour of transracial adoption, going deep into the intimate lives of two well-meaning families and showing us the subtle challenges they face. One family is just beginning the process of adopting a baby from China, the other family's Korean daughter is now 32 years old. Prompted by her adoptive mother's terminal illness, she tries to create the bond they never had. The results are riveting, unpredictable and telling. While the two families are at opposite ends of their respective journeys, their stories converge to show us that love alone isn't enough to make a family work.

Includes the companion DVD, "Adopted: We Can Do Better", with more than two hours of experts' advice to help families clarify their intentions, cope with grief, identify themselves as a mixed-race family, foster identity for their transracial adopted children, and become educated about the politics of international adoption.

Material Title: Adopted Teens Only: A Survival Guide to Adolescence* (Children's Materials)

Author: Danea Gorbett Children's Books 2007 78 pages

This guide for adopted teens addresses issues that parents are often reluctant or unable to discuss with their teenagers: what feelings and thoughts are common to the adoptive experience; what adoptive parents feel; what birth parents feel; what emotional issues are connected with search and reunion; and how to talk to parents about adoption questions.

They are able to identify an extended support system and address common goals and concerns as Christina approaches adulthood.

Material Title: Closure: A Documentary About Adoption (DVD)
Author: Bryan Tucker DVDs 2013 16 minutes

Angela, an African-American woman, was raised by a Caucasian couple in a large, multiracial family in Washington State. She was adopted at the age of one from foster care in the state of Tennessee, under the terms of a closed adoption. As Angela grew older it became apparent that the unanswered questions about her birth story would continue to haunt her if she did not attempt to find some answers. Filmed and edited by her husband Bryan, this documentary follows Angela for two years during the search for her birth family. Several twists and surprising revelations ultimately lead Angela and her family across the country to her place of birth. It is here where Angela comes face to face with her birth mother for the first time, and meets family members who had never known she was even born - including her birth father.

Author: Illinois State University DVDs 2005 12 minutes

This documentary shows interviews with Jimmy, an adopted child with behavior difficulties, at age 8 and later, in his twenty's when he has two kids of his own. He talks about the importance to him of his lifebook, which includes school reports and a letter from his birth mother, in helping him understand his past and form a positive sense of identity.

Material Title: Journeys After Adoption: Understanding Lifelong Issues
Author: Jayne E. Schooler and Betsie L. Norris Books 2002 273 pages

This book deals with issues faced by all members of the adoption triad, but the bulk of it focuses on components and considerations of the search for adoptive parents, including "How do I make the decision to search? How do I prepare emotionally? What are my adoptive parents feeling and thinking? What if I'm rejected, encounter death, or reach a dead end? How will I relate to siblings?"

Material Title: Life Givers: Framing the Birthparent Experience in Open Adoption
Author: James Gritter Books 2000 229 pages

This book examines all the ways in which birthparents are marginalized, providing a glimpse of birthparents' emotional roller coaster ride as they struggle with grief, ambivalence and regret. It makes the persuasive case that adopted children are best served when birthparents and adoptive parents work together to ensure that the birthparents remain part of their children's lives.

Material Title: Lost and Found (VHS)
Author: Debra Baker Videotapes 2005 26 minutes

There are over six million adoptees in the U.S., and though "Lost and Found" is Debra's own story, it could be the story of any of those separated through a closed adoption system. We have seen the airport reunions, and this film takes viewers into the real world of forming relationships in a new, strangely familiar family, and the impact of search and reunion not only on mother and "child", but entire families.

Through interviews of her family, her son, and his adoptive mother, the emotions and ramifications of reunion are explored. Debra's son's story is connected to Debra's story through that of his adoptive mom's, who was gravely ill when Debra met her. But his adoptive mom wanted to tell her story, also; that she felt reunion was a good thing, that there is enough love to go around, hoping to encourage adoptees to search, and their adoptive parents to support them.

Material Title: Openness in Adoption: Exploring Family Connections

Author: Harold D. Grotevant Books 1998 208 pages

For professionals and laypersons alike, this book provides a comprehensive review of the issues involved in openness in adoption. It also provides rich data from an exceptional sample of adoptees, their adoptive parents, and their birth mothers, and it provides a perspective on the experience of each of these members of the adoption triad.

Material Title: Openness: Making Decisions about Openness in Adoption (VHS)

Author: Ed-Net Series Videotapes 1999 90 minutes

A panel discussion focuses on sensitive, life-altering decisions about contact with birth parents, siblings, extended birth families and foster parents. Topics include: defining the range of openness, the developmental needs of children and adoptive families, what kids are thinking vs. what they are talking about.

Material Title: Primal Wound, The: Understanding the Adopted Child

Author: Nancy Newton Verrier Books 1993 222 pages

By applying information about pre-and perinatal psychology, attachment, bonding, and loss, this book clarifies the effects on adopted children of separation from the birthmother. It also gives those children, whose pain has long been unacknowledged or misunderstood, validation for their feelings, as well as explanations for their behavior. The insight it brings to the experience of abandonment and loss will contribute to the healing of adoptees, their adoptive families, and birthparents.

Material Title: Respect, Responsibility, and Commitment in Open Adoptions (Audiotape)

Author: Audiotape Audiotapes 2002

Open adoption is most often presented to prospective birth and adoptive parents in terms of "doing whatever they are comfortable with." What this approach rarely does, however, is take into consideration the needs and desires of the adopted child. This workshop discusses why respect, responsibility, and commitment need to replace comfort if the child is truly to be served in open adoption.

Material Title: Respect, Responsibility, and Commitment in Open Adoptions (CD)

Author: CD CDs 2002 75 minutes
