

Working hard to understand and complete the new All About Me books? Curious what they're all about? Anchor yourself!

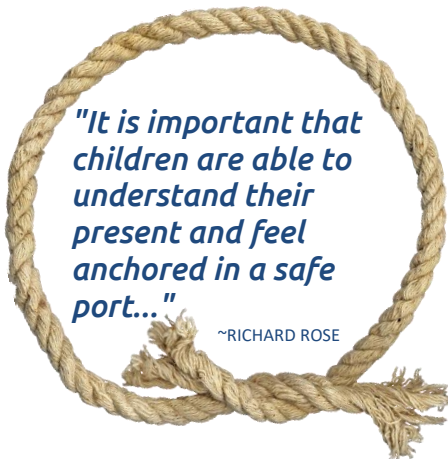

Special Discussion Highlights:

June: Families

September: Sensitive Topics

Join Richard Rose, ORPARC & ODHS for some light & lively sessions on navigating the process of helping kids (and adults too!) to complete their All About Me (AAM) books, a practice now in place for all children spending time in foster care. AAM books help kids ground themselves in the present so they're better prepared to sail into a brighter future.

Richard will share tips and tools, offer context, and help you steer around any obstacles you find in your way.

AAM books are great for adoptive, relative or respite families too!*

*Attendees get entered into a FREE drawing!

Win a copy of Richard's book, a Think Feel Do Bear, or a few other goodies!

Richard Rose founded and oversees the Therapeutic Life Story Work International program, www.tlswi.com. Richard undertakes consultancy and training on Life Story Therapy and working with 'hard to reach' children and adolescents; and develops academic training programs in the UK and internationally.

ORPARC trainings are free-of-charge for ODHS/state adoptive, resource (foster) and assisted guardianship families, ODHS/SNAC adoption professionals, and other participants as space allows. We welcome all ethnicities, genders and sexual orientations. Auxiliary aids and alternative forms of written materials are available to persons with disabilities. Foreign language interpretation is available upon request. Request services two weeks in advance.
